

Preliminary program ASIAQ1
24 – 25 May 2018
Geohuset, William Olsson-salen
Stockholm University

Thursday 24 May

- 09:00-09:45 Registration and coffee, putting up of posters.
- 09:45-10:00 Welcome by Prof. Clas Hättstrand, Prorektor, Vice President, Stockholm University
- 10:00-10:15 Welcome and practical information by Assoc. Prof. Nina Kirchner and Project Manager Elisabet Idermark
- 10:15-10:30 Keynote lecture, Prof. Gia Destouni, Stockholm University
- 10:30-10:45 Keynote lecture, Prof. Ruth Varner, Univ. of New Hampshire
- 10:45-11:00 Keynote lecture, Prof. Jakob Kutteneuler, KTH Royal Institute of Technology
- 11:00-11:15 Keynote lecture, Prof. Hideaki Murayama, University of Tokyo
- 11:15-11:30 Keynote lecture, Dr. Gabriella Nordin, Umeå University
- 11:30-11:45 Keynote lecture Dr. Marina Kalinina, Northern (Arctic) Federal University
- 11:45-12:15 Poster Pico-presentations
- 12:15-13:15 Lunch and Poster Session
- 13:15-13:45 Value-judgments in assessing and communicating extreme scenarios of climate change impacts
Lecture by Dr. Per Wikman-Svahn, KTH Royal Institute of Technology
- 13:45-14:15 Scenarios for the future Arctic
Introduction to group work, Gunnar Linn and Johanna Almén
- 14:15-14:45 Group work on Scenarios, exercise 1.
- 14:45-15:00 Leg-stretcher and coffee. Group photo.
- 15:00-16:10 Group work on Scenarios, exercise 2.
- 16:10-16:15 Closing remarks Day 1, and plans for Day 2.
- 16:30-17:00 Bus transfer to Nordic Museum

At the Nordic Museum

- 17:00-18:00 From Andréé to outreach on polar matters, lecture by Håkan Jorikson of Gränna Museum
- The tentacular museum, lecture by Lotten Gustafsson Reinius, the Hallwyl visiting professor of Nordic Folk life research at the Nordic Museum and Stockholm University which between 2016-19 focuses on the theme Man in the Arctic in the light of Climate Change.
- At home in the Arctic, Jon Johansson, Master of History, Stockholm University and coordinator of the coming exhibition on the Arctic, a major outcome of the cooperation which opens in the fall of 2019.
- 18:00-18:30 The Arctic exhibition at Nordic Museum, guide Cecilia Hammarlund-Larsson
- 18:30-19:30 Buffet and mingle at the Nordic Museum
- Ca 19:30 Walk or tram transport back to hotel

Friday 25 May

Geohuset

- 09:00-09:30 Coffee with Poster Session
- 09:30-09:35 Welcome to Day 2 by organizers
- 09:35-10:45 Group work on Scenarios, exercise 3.
- 10:45-11:30 Summary and reflections from group work
- 11:30-11:45 ASIAQ mobility grants, first recipient
- 11:45-12:00 Forthcoming ASIAQ activities and workshops, Assoc. Prof. Nina Kirchner
ASIAQ2 in Tokyo, Prof. Hideaki Murayama, University of Tokyo
Reflections from ASIAQ steering committee
- 12.00-12.15 Closing remarks, Assoc. Prof. Nina Kirchner
- 12.15-13.15 Lunch

